

HOW DATE: 16 APRIL TO 19 APRIL 2024

THE ONLY OFFICIAL SHOW PUBLICATIONS

Intertraffic Amsterdam is the world's leading trade event within the traffic and transport sector. It attracted over 23,500 visitors from 121 countries in 2022

With such a well-attended event, exhibiting alone is no guarantee that your company's message will be heard; there is simply too much competition and too many distractions for that to be a certainty. Therefore, how can your company stand out from the crowd? This is where the official Intertraffic 2024 Preview and the three editions of the Daily News; the official daily newspaper become invaluable, guaranteeing your company communicates effectively with the visitors, before during and after the show. Each evening the entire content of the Daily News will be distributed as an eNewsletter to our global 50,000 named database. Recipients will be able to access all the leading news items and product launches with just one click. This takes them to intertrafficLive.com where they can read the full news articles, view the pictures and even link directly to the websites of the companies they are interested in. Whether all your customers make it to Amsterdam or not, there is no reason why they cannot read about your company and its products online. The eNewsletter will be sent in HTML and mobile-optimised formats.

Official Intertraffic 2024 Preview

To enable exhibitors to generate pre-event publicity and visitors to plan who they must see, ITS International and World Highways magazines will publish the official Intertraffic 2024 Preview as a standalone publication that will be distributed in advance of the show. This specially commissioned publication will be produced with the full co-operation of the RAI and will contain all the latest Intertraffic news, as well as sneak previews of products that will debut at the show.

The Daily News Show Newspaper

The Daily News is produced LIVE on-site and will contain all the news from the show as it happens. There will be 8,000 copies published per day, Tuesday-Thursday inclusive. Each edition will be crammed full of photographs and reports on new product introductions and major announcements.

This is THE publication that visitors rely on to direct them to the best innovations at the show every day.

Companies advertising in these official products are guaranteed editorial coverage, in the form of a photo story in the respective publication.
